

Beachy BLISS

SIMPLE IN STYLE, THIS LUXURY
HOLIDAY APARTMENT IS THE PERFECT RETREAT

BY HASMITA AMTHA • PROJECT CONSULTANT DIANE LUBBE
PROPERTY COORDINATOR MARLIZE DU RAND • PHOTOGRAPHER KEITH QUIXLEY

Within a prestigious block, this luxury apartment sits in one of Cape Town's most beautiful suburbs – Bantry Bay. Overlooking the rocky coastline, this three-bedroom apartment is appreciated for its majestic ocean views and central location, making it ideal for a city escape.

Ensuring that the interiors matched the atmosphere, a classic contemporary aesthetic with a bit of fun was applied.

The owner elaborates on the direction: "In the open-plan living and dining room, I wanted the blues to complement the ocean view. In the bedrooms I wanted a sophisticated look, yet an element of fun and colour as it is a holiday home."

Most importantly, the owner needed the apartment to be very comfortable and inviting. With this in mind, the interior designer sourced fitting furniture and décor, with a special focus on the dining chairs and sofa where the owner could relax and where guests could be comfortable. >

ABOVE: When Tashi Krost Interiors designed this exquisite master bedroom, the focus was on creating a comfortable and elegant space that evoked a sense of calm. An ideal space for the owner to retire to after a long day, this master suite incorporates intricate details and pops of colour, while keeping it neutral and inviting.

"I wanted everything to be practical. There is a custom-made bar in the living/dining room area; it is so well designed and fits the space perfectly – it makes entertaining a delight," says the owner.

With contemporary finishes throughout, the apartment has been updated to evoke a modern feel. The bedrooms are definitely a highlight for the owner, particularly the alluring master bedroom. With the use of whimsical wallpaper and classic furnishings, the bedrooms have been transformed. "Each room needed to have the wow factor as the building in itself is seriously breathtaking," says the owner.

Complementing its location, this recently renovated apartment offers its owner a beach-style break in the comfort of luxury style. 🏡
